JUDGMENT

Prayer is for implementation of Ext.P3 and disbursement of the amounts stated therein with interest. According to the petitioner, the Government should first pay the amount to the petitioner and then realise it from the Manager. Learned counsel for the second respondent submits that there is already a stay granted by the Supreme Court in the matter of payment as per order dated 13.12.2004. It is submitted that petitioner is also a respondent in the case.

Therefore, this writ petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to approach the Government subject to the outcome of the matter pending before the Supreme Court.

KURIAN JOSEPH, JUDGE
